

quartz case study

Customer:
VOSA,
Bristol

Product(s):
Apton Quartz

Frame colour:
Granite

Skirting:
Power and data skirting

The brief:

- 01 To create a suite of offices enhanced by natural light.
- 02 To locate power and data points within close proximity to workstations.
- 03 To incorporate bespoke designs in the manifestations on the glass in order to pick up on other design elements in the building.
- 04 To make provision for future changes to the office layout.

Key features:

Apton full height framed glass doors offer improved sound insulation and allow power and data lines to run from ceiling to skirting.

Power and data skirting detail to achieve customer requirements.

Why chosen?

The Apton system was chosen for its bespoke design qualities.

Additionally, Apton was chosen for its superior finish and ease with which it can be located.

Furthermore, all necessary components and fittings required to complete the installation in full are included at delivery on to site.

The result:

A previously dated set of offices with dark corridors totally transformed into a bright modern environment enhanced by natural light, giving the feeling of increased open space whilst maintaining privacy.

Apton Partitioning Ltd, Unit 19, Cannon Business Park, Darkhouse Lane, Coseley, West Midlands, WV14 8XQ.
Factory Tel: +44 (0) 870 429 6578 Fax: +44 (0) 870 429 6579 www.apton-partitioning.com

Apton is distributed and installed by an international network of approved independent dealers and installation specialists. This ensures that whatever your project you can be assured of both first class service and fair and competitive pricing. Designed and manufactured in the UK.